

Apr 29 2019 - 2021 CSG Staff Call for Applications

- Applications will be accepted from May 1 - July 15
- The committee will make a recommendation to the board for ratification by July 31, 2019
- Announcement of the selected manager(s)/coaches will be made in early August 2019

Note: Some coach positions may be filled at later dates based on specific skill sets needed for events such as Para, Special Olympics and or other technical events.

Athletics New Brunswick is now seeking applicants for the positions of staff coaches for the 2021 Jeux Canada Games that will be held in Niagara Region, Ontario. The date of the games is August 6th to August 21st, 2021. At this time, it is unclear whether Athletics will be a first week sport as in 2017 but we will confirm this as quickly as possible.

Applicants are asked to submit their coaching application in English to coach@anb.ca by Monday July 15th, 2019 at midnight. The head coach, manager along with the Athletics NB Provincial Teams Committee will then begin the selection process. It is expected that final selections can be brought to the ANB board for ratification by July 31, 2019 and announced in Early August 2019.

Please Note: The selection committee reserves the right to withhold naming all positions during this initial call.

*Coaches at the games MUST BE level 3/Comp Dev/Performance Coach certified. If you are not certified at the moment that is OK as there is time to meet requirements.

*Those selected will be asked to submit a current police record check no later than one month after notice of selection (September 2019). A letter of request will be provided.

Applicants are encouraged to read the Head Coach Letter which was published on the ANB website as well as familiarizing themselves with the medal history of New Brunswick on the ANB website. ANB Canada Games Program Information:
